

Who Project Worth Serves

Our patients are survivors who have experienced life events such as: prostitution, sex trafficking, escort services, exchanging sex for goods or services, or body work.

Community Healthlink's Project Worth is supported in part by a grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA).

Project Worth

Providing respectful, sensitive, and compassionate care to those who have experienced sexual trauma.

Project Worth provides respectful, sensitive, and compassionate care to individuals who have experienced sexual trauma. Our services address the physical and mental well-being of each patient who seeks care.

Through our project, we work toward a future where all survivors of sexual exploitation have the resources and support to achieve their fullest potential. We welcome women and individuals who identify as women, of all sexual orientations, gender identities, races, religions, ethnicities, and abilities.

Services We Provide

Our team consists of physicians, nurses, behavioral health specialists, and case managers and we provide comprehensive services including:

Medical Care

We offer physical exams, same day visits, addiction treatment using medications such as Suboxone and Vivitrol, and Hepatitis C treatment

Sexual Health Services

We provide sexually transmitted infection testing and treatment, PAP testing, pregnancy testing, birth control, and referral to outside services

Behavioral Health Care

Our team offers counseling, psychiatry, and referral to support services as needed

Case Management

We can assist you with gaining access to other services including insurance enrollment, benefit programs, transportation, health and wellness education, and supportive services in the community.
